

The University of Texas at Austin
Energy Institute

Application for Graduate Portfolio Program in Energy Studies

Last Name First Name UT EID Semester Applying (Fall, Spring)

Major/College/Department Degree Sought (MA, Ph.D. etc). Likely Graduation Date

Email Address Home Address

Proposed coursework (twelve credit hours plus 2 hours for the Energy Symposium):

Course Number	Course Name	Instructor
	Energy Technology and Policy (3 hours, graduate level required)
PA 188S	UT Energy Symposium (1 hour, 1 st Semester, required)
PA 188S	UT Energy Symposium (1 hour, 2nd Semester, required)
	*3 hour class
	*3 hour class
	*3 hour class

*Note: One of the courses selected must be on energy-related environmental issues or energy law and at least two courses are from two graduate programs other than their own major program

Proposed research topic with brief description:

This research will be a Master’s Thesis; Doctoral Dissertation;

Other Name of Supervisor: _____

My home department is aware that I am applying for the GPPES. (You should ensure that the department (Graduate Advisor etc) is aware of your application).

Signature of applicant & Date

Signature of member of GPPES Faculty Steering Committee Date

Submit application materials to: Dr. Dave Tuttle, Portfolio Program Coordinator
FAC 428 /C2400

Please provide a one-page essay on your interest in pursuing the Graduate Portfolio Program in Energy Studies and how it relates to your current graduate major at the University of Texas at Austin and your career goals. (attach additional pages if necessary)

Applicants will be notified upon receipt of application materials that they are under review. Only complete applications will be reviewed by the committee. Decision notification will occur on a rolling basis each semester. Admission to the program will be selective and the Faculty Steering Committee reserves the right to admit or reject applicants.